Accepting a call to serve on a New Beginnings team is an important commitment.

- Serving as JWA is a major responsibility to be carried out with humility and total commitment to serving God and His church.
- The JWA must be willing to adhere to the rules of New Beginnings and to accept the decisions of the Lay Director and the New Beginnings Steering Committee. Please enter into this commitment prayerfully and with the support of your family, priest, and youth leader.
- Your application must be complete and have all appropriate signatures.
- Attach a photo to your application.
- Email a one-page personal statement to youth@diocesefl.org. Your statement should reflect your faith and how you live that faith out in the world. Please include how you nurture your faith on a regular basis. Explain in detail how you are involved in the life and worship of your own Episcopal Church. The essay will be forwarded to the NB Committee members prior to selection.
- You must have recommendations from your Priest, a community member, your youth leader and a parent. Your application will not be considered until the letters or emails are received. Recommendation cover letters follow below this application.

➔ I believe that I am serving my Lord and living as a Christian example to my peers. I am mentally and spiritually capable of serving as JWA. I understand that I am responsible to the New Beginnings Steering Committee and their decisions regarding the operation of New Beginnings, and I agree to live by the standards for this event. _____

Deadline for recommendation _____

Your son/daughter is seeking the position of Junior Weekend Advisor of New Beginnings in the Diocese of Florida. This is a major time commitment; many hours of planning, working with advisors and leadership team, and individual work will be required. Some financial obligations do exist. Meals and gas are often an expense since meetings are held in a variety of locations. Under no circumstances do we want a person to decline to apply for Rector because of expenses. Most parishes are willing to help with team fees if requested. If you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the Lay Director of New Beginnings.

Please indicate through an email sent to youth@diocesefl.org your willingness to recommend and support your child for Junior Weekend Advisor of New Beginnings. Include in your recommendation answers to the following questions:

1. Briefly describe your child's leadership ability.
2. Briefly describe your child's spiritual maturity.
3. Describe how your child is involved in church services and youth group within your parish.
4. Add any thoughts that may help the New Beginnings Steering Committee make a decision about the ability of this applicant to serve as a New Beginnings Junior Weekend Advisor.

Any questions may be directed to Angela Boyd, Lay Director of New Beginnings, at youth@diocesefl.org or phone number 904-610-0776.
